

ICATT President Appointed to ICAC Board of Directors

The President of The Institute of Chartered Accountants of Trinidad & Tobago (ICATT), Mr. Anthony Pierre was recently appointed to the post of Director on the Board of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of the Caribbean (ICAC) for the 2010/2011 period.

Mr. Pierre replaces past Director, Angela Lee Loy as ICATT's representative on this prestigious board where he previously served as alternate director. He will also be ably supported by Mr. Andrew Tom, ICATT's Vice President & Council Member who will serve as alternate director.

Both men bring a wealth of experience and insight to the new role and congratulations are extended on behalf of their industry colleagues.

These appointments came on the conclusion of the 28th annual Caribbean conference of accountants held in the Bahamas from 24th to 26th June where a contingent of approximately sixty Trinidad and Tobago accounting professionals were in attendance to discuss issues affecting the regional accounting landscape under the theme, Responding to Change: Reshaping the Accounting Profession in the Caribbean.
